STUDENT SESSIONS

Keynote Presentation:

Presented by: John Linney, Impact Coaching & Speaking

John Linney, M.A. is Executive Director of Impact Coaching and Speaking, Inc. He is a master speaker and trainer and his speaking style is engaging, authentic and energizing. As a "climate control specialist," he has provided services and training to over 375 educational institutions, community partnerships, and not for profit organizations throughout the USA and Mexico.

Security Risks of Social Networking

Presented by: Chris McLaughlan, Correctional Service Canada

Chris McLaughlan is a 16 year member of the Correctional Service of Canada who has worked at the medium security Stony Mountain Institution and the minimum security Rockwood Institution. He served as the Security Intelligence Officer at Rockwood Institution for 6 months, before returning to Stony Mountain Institution as the SIO there. He recently completed a four month assignment as the Acting Regional Communications Manager for the Prairie Region. He speaks extensively on gang issues throughout Western Canada.

Cyber Safety: Please Network Responsibly

Presented by: Brennan Pearson & Jordan Billinkoff, Tech Safety Advisory

"Please Network Responsibly" is a cutting edge awareness campaign aimed at educating the public about the hidden dangers of the Internet and new technologies, while promoting safe, healthy, and responsible online practices. This session will be focused on privacy and Internet addictions. Privacy online is a major concern in today's society, as the risks and implications of putting information online are growing. Did you know that "Internet Addiction Disorder" is already considered a mental health condition in South Korea? With Internet and technology usage in North America growing at exponential rates, it doesn't seem like we're too far

Youth Voice Through Theatre

Presented by: Saskatchewan Urban Native Teacher Education (SUNTEP) Students and Co-ordinator Mr. R. Montalbetti (Note: This workshop will run all of Thursday afternoon)

This session will demonstrate the use of interactive performance drama techniques used by schools to provide a method for participants to explore difficult issues such as racism and bullying in their lives, connect them to wider social issues, and experiment with actions to deal with them. It is a very empowering process for all involved. This session will be of interest to students, teachers, and school community council members.
